

Armed Forces Community Primary Care Network

A group designed to build a sustainable network between GP practices and PCN Armed Forces leads, to improve communication and co-ordination between primary care services.

The network provides a platform to:

- promote military support services and pathways
- share best practices
- improve the quality of care and support provided to the Armed Forces Community across Essex.

Scan the QR code or sign up here:

healthwatchesessex.org.uk/armed-forces-community/